As per the City Charter, every three years we are required to publish the notice for Request for Qualifications (RFQ) for an auditor for the next three fiscal years. That will be placed in the newspaper very soon.

Finance Director Rosie Vela explained the average weighted maturity for all funds is one day. Funds are being kept at local banks in order to offset banking fees. Fees avoided for this quarter totaled $1,650.87, which is the equivalent of earning 33 basis points on our portfolio, or .33%. At this time the interest rates are not high enough to invest otherwise. In February 2016 the City can consider refunding the Series 2013 Tax Notes. At that time, the Principal outstanding will be approximately $410,000.
